

Conflict Studies in the Humanities

Special Issue: Migration and Identities: Conflict and the New Horizon

Contents

Preface

Junji Koizumi—iii

List of Contributors ————— xi

Part 1: Approach to the Global Research on the Migration and Identity

Migration, National Identity, and Citizenship in a Transnational World

Leo R. Chavez—3

Ethnicity and Conflicts in the Age of Globalization:

A Case Study of Japanese Coffee Farmers in Kona, the Big Island of Hawai'i

Mariko Iijima—23

Lives of Japanese Peruvians in Japan and Their Identity Conflict:

Examining the Life Strategy and Identity Formation of a Japanese-Peruvian Family

Toshio Yanagida—53

Immigration and Social Control during the Getúlio Vargas Dictatorship

Fernanda Torres Magalhães—75

Peruvian Highland Indigenous Shepherders in USA: A Case Study

Teofilo Altamirano—93

Part 2: Language, Culture and Education among Nikkei Brazilians

Language Contact and Conflicts in the Nikkei/Okinawan Immigrant Communities in Brazil

Mayumi Kudo—115

Family, Cinema and “Okinawa”: Olga Futemma

Etsuko Hirata—135

Transformations of the Nissei Educational Model in a Japanese-Brazilian Ethnic Community: From Wakon-Hakusai-ron (Japanese-Spirits/Brazilian-Skills Model) to Hakkon-Wasai-ron (Brazilian-Spirits/Japanese-Skills Model)

Koichi Mori—151

Educational Strategies of “Circular” Peoples in Japan

Kokichi Shimizu—185

Part 3: Japan in Brazil, Brazil in Japan

Japanese Immigration to Brazil: History, Trajectory, and Memory

Sedi Hirano—205

Religious Conflict in the Literary Works of Endo Shusaku:
A Psychological Approach

Geraldo José de Paiva—217

Between Japan and Brazil:
Phenotype and Culture as Sources of Stereotype and Conflict

Roseli Fischmann—229

The Psychological Challenge of Being between Cultures Such as Brazil and Japan: A Preventive Work Proposition

Sylvia Duarte Dantas—251

Between Fear and Empathy: Impact of the First Wave of Japanese Immigration on the Italian Community in Brazil

Federico Croci—267

Nikkeis in Brazil, dekasseguis in Japan:
Identity and Memory in Films about Migration

Alexandre Kishimoto and Rose Satiko Gitirana Hikiji—291

The Japanese in Relation to the Brazilian Political Imaginary (1897-1926)

Marcia Yumi Takeuchi—325

Editorial Board ————— 336